

Indiana residents wanted a strict no-call list. We got one - all 3.6 million of us - and we like it. Please reject the petition by the Consumer Bankers Association to override Indiana State Law.

I would go so far as to suggest you consider adopting our law at the national level. It will make America's evenings much quieter (unless of course, you have kids...but that's outside of the FCC's scope).